MOTIONS

7 Councillor E. O'Brien - Safety issues Barrack Bridge, Malahide - AI055698

"That the Chief Executive report on safety issues concerning Barrack Bridge, Malahide, specifically around pedestrians and vulnerable road users and how this area can be made safer, possibly by the introduction of a shuttle light system or a one-way system either of which would allow for an extension of the footpath and / or segregated cycling infrastructure at this location."

8 Councillor E. O'Brien - Pilot Scheme "food truck" type concessions - AI055729

"That the Chief Executive pilots a scheme in the Howth Malahide area to allow for the operation of "food truck" type concessions serving hot and cold beverages, confectionery, sandwiches and/or hot food in Council owned areas such as car parks or suitable roadside locations."

9 Councillor A. Lavin - Improvements to Kinsaley Lane, Malahide - AI055379

"That the Chief Executive puts urgent measures in place on Kinsaley Lane, Malahide to improve its poor road conditions, lack of footpaths, public lighting and flooding opportunities."

10 Councillor A. Tormey - Bench at entrance to Seapark, Malahide - AI056303

"That the Chief Executive install a wooden bench at the entrance to Seapark, Malahide, near the bus stop."

11 Councillor J. Hopkins - PAC Hall, Portmarnock Car Park - AI056349

"That the Chief Executive fill in the potholes at PAC Hall, Portmarnock and line the car park including wheelchair accessible and age friendly car parking spaces."

12 Councillor A. Lavin - Pedestrian safety at Barrack Bridge, Malahide - AI055757

“That the Chief Executive give an update on what initiatives the Council have and/or will be introduced on Barrack Bridge / Old Yellow Walls Road, Malahide to improve road safety for the large number of pedestrians who use it going from and to Seabury, particularly children using it to get to and from local schools.”

13 Councillor J. Hopkins - Request for Benches on Grange Road, Baldoyle - AI056353

“That the Chief Executive provides benches at suitable locations from Baldoyle Industrial Estate to Baldoyle Library via Willie Nolan/Brookstone Road/Dublin Road as part of its Active Travel Strategy as older people in the area are more likely to walk to public amenities such as shops and post office where suitable rest places are provided.”
